

Dr. Paul Hughes

Dr Paul Hughes is a Mullingar-based journalist and historian who was awarded a PhD in History from Queen's University, Belfast in 2018, for his thesis entitled 'The Irish republican activism of Laurence Ginnell, 1916-23', which he is currently turning into a biography of Ginnell. He is Westmeath County Council's Decade of Centenaries Historian in Residence for March to July 2021, and works as sports editor with the Westmeath Examiner newspaper.